

Geriatrics

- Drops in hospitals and their outcome – a long-term follow-up
- Risk factors for delirium after hip placement in geriatric patients
- Risk factors for malnutrition after elective surgeries in geriatric patients
- Comparison of medication and therapy recommendations in geriatric patients at discharge from acute care hospital after 4 weeks – which therapies are considered?
- Predictive value of laboratory parameters in the rehabilitation of geriatric patients
- Learning progress in geriatric and demential patients – influences of environmental factors, learning methods and nutrition
- Positive and negative predictors of rehabilitation prognosis – significance of the ADL- and Tinetti score
- Indication of abdominal surgeries in octogenarians – an analysis covering the last 25 years

top